Goal : With this training, site collection administrators and site owners will have an overview of the major settings on the Site Settings page that will help them manage their businesses or departments more effectively with SharePoint. The settings will be presented especially assuming that the user has the Office 365 Enterprise version and sometimes (when the differences are very significant) we will show how the same settings look like in the Office 365 K1 version. Subjects are treated in the decreasing usage order frequency by super-users (ie non-computer scientists and non-
